

THE AIRCRAFT SALES COMPANY

Aircraft Specification Hispano HA-1112 Buchon “Yellow 7”

The Buchon type first flew from Seville, Spain in 1945. In May 1951, an armed, 3 bladed version went into service with a two-place tandem training aircraft following thereafter.

The final variant of the type was a “-M1L” which first flew in March 1954, This model carried two 22 mm cannons and two eight-packs of 80 mm rockets. The -M1L remained in service until late December 1965.

This Buchon has been beautifully restored and is presented for sale in immaculate condition. The aircraft is hugely popular on the air show display circuit and is known for having appeared in the famous movie the Battle of Britain. A truly iconic looking aircraft!
